- Oh, give us pleasure in the flowers to-day;
And give us not to think so far away
As the uncertain harvest; keep us here
All simply in the springing of the year.
- The ring is on my hand,
And the wreath is on my brow;
Satin and jewels grand
Are all at my command,

About Poem Analysis

Why we are the Home of Poetry

With an incredibly talented team of poetry experts, Poem Analysis was created to be the home of poetry online.

“Poetry is the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings:
it takes its origin from emotion recollected in tranquillity”

William Wordsworth was an English poet whose verse is some of the most influential and important in the English language. He was one of the most prominent Romantic poets and served as Poet Laureate for the final seven years of his life.

Some of Wordsworth's most famous poems include 'I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud', 'Lucy Gray', 'The World is Too Much With Us', 'My Heart Leaps Up', and 'Lines Composed a Few Miles above Tintern Abbey'.
